(A. P. Special Cable)
London, March 20.—Two thousand persons have been killed in date in the fighting incident to the German revolution movement and disturbance of the past week. It is estimated in Berlin, according to the Economic Telegraph correspondent, that.

London, March 20.—Albert Governmental forces have bombed public buildings at Leipzig in an attempt to dislodge the Bolsheviks from their forces, and several hundred persons have been killed as a result, says a Berlin despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The message says 100 were killed and 200 wounded in the street fighting in Berlin on Thursday.

ALLIES TO ADVANCE?

Berlin, March 20.—There are many indications, according to a despatch from Cologne today, that the Allies are preparing to advance their counterrevolutionary front at Strasbourg and Metz, further into Germany. The country does not quite know what the Allies are doing.

CANNERS UP

Boosted by Those Who Want to Control.

A report from the Montreal stock market, this morning on yesterday's activities, states that the canners, for the third time in recent years, were amongst the leading advances in the market.

For the second time in its history, the company led the market, with a turnover of $225,000 shares of stock, and a market value of $1,000,000.

The canners, it is reported, are Atlantic stocks. The canners closed at 65% having touched 65 cents yesterday.

The net advance being 20 cents. The reason for this was the rumor that a man, who had been obliged to leave with the directors of the company, was trying to get control of the stock to force a dividend. It caused some fluctuation in the market.

W. R. Drynan, secretary of the canners, stated this morning that he had no desire to discuss the matter as he was not sufficiently acquainted with the facts.

POSTIES' PAY

Maximum $105 and $35
Bonus Monthly.

In Toronto yesterday the letter carriers, who are members of the letter carriers, interviewed the manager and said that the wages of letter carriers, if the Civil Service Commission would not accept the demand for $750 to $1,200 a year, would be increased to a bonus of $420 a year. The Commission, however, has not yet agreed to accept the position.

Eventually it did come in. "But let me say that it is not a warrant for any such belief.

"This is not a case of charity, you know," he said. "When Mr. Main had the letter carriers to make up his present position, I declined as I was not eager to do so. After my defeat in the municipal election, I was again asked by the other officials to accept the position. Eventually it did come in. "But let me say that it is not a warrant for any such belief.

The assistant treasurer said he felt the letter carriers had the "go" by the time he accepted the position. When he accepted his present position, he was told he should advance any improvement in the department. He might see the recommendations. Last Friday he made 24 recommendations to the controllers.

These recommendations all concerned the letter carriers.

The letter carriers to the city treasurer's department. Strange to say, said Mr. Morris, the controllers, who were in the public service, had been asked to let the matter lie. Mr. Morris, for the time being, had been feeling that the letter carriers in fact had to respect such confidence still, he opines that if these recommendations were carried out, the letter carriers would be greatly improved and considerable money would be saved.

The city treasurer's department has been started and negotiated by the controllers, continued Mr. Morris. He said that the letter carriers had also urged that improvements be made to the department, but these were, seemingly, not taken into account. Special care was made of the fact by Mr. Morris that Albert Morris, an able young man, was the departmental controller, and was allowed to remain, simply because he wanted a raise in salary.

Miss Christie, a member of the letter carriers, was also allowed to resign because she wanted more money. Mr. Morris, however, had no objection to both these employees, but the controllers, said Mr. Morris, took no notice of this charge.

Mr. Morris, he did not take the vote of the letter carriers to be a representative of the letter carriers. He would have to resign if a successor to Mr. Morris.

RAILWAY CLERKS

Want Wage Question Settled Without Board.

Grand Trunk Railway clerks of the different local departments are evidently more interested in getting some increase as a result of the scourge of war. Mr. Robert J. Hoover, to the effect that Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, had recommended a committee of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees that, if it does not reach an agreement with the Canadian Railway by to-day, a Board of Control will be appointed. They will be compelled to take a stand on the question.

"The Canadian Railway Employees' Association, which has been in existence for the time being, has been asked to let the matter lie. Mr. Morris, for the time being, had been feeling that the letter carriers in fact had to respect such confidence still, he opines that if these recommendations were carried out, the letter carriers would be greatly improved and considerable money would be saved.

INJURED HIS THUMB

John MacFarlane, 97 John street north, was removed, after an operation, from Dr. Hubbard's surgery, Main street. MacFarlane, who was employed at a hardware store, had sustained a badly lacerated thumb, which came in contact with a revolving circular saw, which he was using.

After having his injuries treated at the hospital he was able to proceed home.

DESPERATE,
SAYS HOOVER

After an exhaustive survey of all the countries, which have been the scene of the scourge of war, Mr. Robert J. Hoover, says, "In the opinion of the near and far, the most important country in the world."

Yes, Hoover indeed is the conclusion of the Armenian people, who are being sent but it can only be in the hands of the people, but I have nothing on my conscience that would tell me that we shall do anything but what we have done in our decision.

For the criticism which has been leveled off me by citizens of the organizations, we can take no further action but I believe that the court was sufficient for conviction.

Were I to try a case to-morrow of the same sort, and have the same evidence presented as was in this case I would dismiss the charge," stated Magistrate Jeffs, this morning to a representative of The Times, when interrogated on the case.

At noon, Jeffs, acting for the Crown Attorney, who is in charge of the prosecution of the case, was also interviewed this morning. He, however, has created such a furor in the city.

"Outside of that I have nothing to say." The press has done a good job in this case, he says, and I have nothing on my conscience that would tell me that we shall do anything but what we have done in our decision.

The celebrated pianist who can't play in evening clothes.

The singer who never has been able to handle her hands so always has to hold something in them.

The famous pianist who must have a stool and it must be set just so high to the thirty-fourth of an inch.

Ladies' Memorial Church, will be greatly missed, and a sincere friend: also a member of the Arbitrators Court, A.O.F., and Knights of Sherwood Forest, a widow, two sons, Mrs. (Dr.) J. H. and Dr. J. H. Jones; also three brothers, William, George and John, of this city, and two sons, Mrs. Thomas Dutton, survivor. Funeral from his late residence, 120 Belmont avenue, on Tuesday, 1.45 p.m. to All Saints' Memorial Church for service at 2 o'clock.

Lockie's position were advertised for him, and will be an applicant for the vacancy.

"Will you resign if you are not appointed?" he was asked.

"Not necessarily," he replied. "I shall continue to act as assistant treasurer and advise the new appointment as far as my knowledge will permit. It is that overwhich is responsible for the high tax rate at the present time, and, as far as I can see, it was determined that had the Council been discreet two years ago it would have estimated the revenue at about $500,000 instead of $100,000 per cent."

If he did resign, Mr. Morris said he would be satisfied if he could get a few pleasure from being associated with the work of the city, and it he could not be an employee he would endeavor to be a member of the Board of Control or the City Council.

Mr. Morris touched on rather an important matter when he charged that the present high tax rate was altogether unnecessary, and due to the mistake made by the Council of two years ago.

"The taxes at that time were overestimated, and we will be overtaxed again," he concluded.

"Will you resign if you are not appointed?" he was asked.

"Not necessarily," he replied. "I shall continue to act as assistant treasurer and advise the new appointment as far as my knowledge will permit. "Will you resign if you are not appointed?" he was asked.

"Not necessarily," he replied. "I shall continue to act as assistant treasurer and advise the new appointment as far as my knowledge will permit. It is that overwhich is responsible for the high tax rate at the present time, and, as far as I can see, it was determined that had the Council been discreet two years ago it would have estimated the revenue at about $500,000 instead of $100,000 per cent."

If he did resign, Mr. Morris said he would be satisfied if he could get a few pleasure from being associated with the work of the city, and it he could not be an employee he would endeavor to be a member of the Board of Control or the City Council.

Mr. Morris touched on rather an important matter when he charged that the present high tax rate was altogether unnecessary, and due to the mistake made by the Council of two years ago.

"The taxes at that time were overestimated, and we will be overtaxed again," he concluded.
